

NIPPON - CHA!CHA!CHA!

Performed in Japanese

Making her debut as a theater director, the internationally acclaimed contemporary dancer and choreographer Un Yamada presents “NIPPON - CHA!CHA!CHA!” by the late Koharu Kisaragi, a standard-bearer of Japan’s young dramatists movement in the 1980s.

However, Yamada is not only staging that renowned play about the isolation and setbacks of a young athlete aiming to run for Japan in the Olympic marathon – she is also presenting a dance version in a fascinating double bill featuring one performance after the other.
