

Ginga Tetsudo no Yoru 2020” (“Night on the Galactic Railroad 2020”)

Performed in Japanese

As he starts his second term before stepping down as KAAT’s artistic director, Akira Shirai is directing “Ginga Tetsudo no Yoru 2020” (“Night on the Galactic Railroad 2020”), a new music drama that opened Sept. 20 in the theatre’s 10th anniversary program of productions.

In 1995, Shirai created “A Music Drama of Ihatovo – Night on the Galactic Railroad” to mark 10 years since the opening of Tokyo’s Aoyama Theatre. Based on “Ginga Tetsudo no Yoru” (“Night on the Galactic Railroad”), a fantasy novel by Kenji Miyazawa (1896–1933), that proved to be so popular that it was rerun the next year to commemorate the centenary of the author’s birth.

Now, the director is returning to Miyazawa’s masterpiece once more – along with some of the original staff from 1995 – as he stages “Ginga Tetsudo no Yoru 2020” (“Night on the Galactic Railroad 2020”) in the main hall at KAAT.
